

For Immediate Release, 6 June 2014

Secret Retreats Expands its Collection in Asia and Welcomes 9 New Members

After the recent launch of Secret Inns, Secret Villas, Secret Cruises and Secret Tables, Secret Retreats is pleased to welcome 9 New Members into its portfolio, including a private estate on the east coast of Bali, an elegant floating camp in the remote jungles of Cambodia, and an adventurous cruise down Borneo's Rungan River.

"We are very excited with the positive response we have received so soon after launching our new labels and we will continue to enrich our collection with a variety of experiences in exotic destinations so that our guests can discover parts of Asia that are more removed from the main sight-seeing trails". - Stephane Junca, Managing Director of Secret Retreats

Secret Retreats 9 New Members:

Jeeva Saba, Bali – Indonesia

Comprising a mix of colonial and modern architecture, Jeeva Saba is a beachfront estate located on Saba beach, along Bali's east coast. From the Pura Anyar temple at the estate entrance to the uninterrupted views of Gunung Agung and the Nusa Penida islands, at Jeeva Saba you are truly embraced by the spirit of Bali.

Mekong Villas, Isan – Thailand

Mekong Villas is a magical retreat situated on a promontory overlooking the Mekong River in Pakchom, Loei Province. Reflecting the area's unspoiled beauty, and offering panoramic views of the Mekong and Laos, the 3 villas sleep 12 people in 6 double rooms.

4 Rivers Floating Lodge - Cardamom Chain – Cambodia

Offering the same high-end facilities as a four-star boutique resort, 4 Rivers Floating Lodge is a luxurious camp set amidst nature. Environmentally friendly, the resort's secluded floating lodges are a peaceful place in which to relax and let your senses take over.

Bali Jiwa, Bali – Indonesia

Bali Jiwa Villa is located just 15 minutes north of Ubud. Set in a lush natural environment, its 2 luxurious villas offer sweeping views of the mountains and rice paddy fields. Tastefully decorated with a modern Balinese twist, both villas can accommodate 2-3 people. Each has a private pool, open-air living room, private balcony, and luxury amenities.

Villa Idanna, Bali – Indonesia

Set on a peninsula overlooking the spellbinding Sidemen Valley's rice terraces and forested hills leading up the sacred volcano Gunung Agung, Villa Idanna, Bali offers a quiet refuge for rejuvenation and solace. The 3 bedroom villa features 2 king size bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, a bedroom with twin beds, spacious al-fresco seating areas, and a private 20-metre long heated pool.

Spirit of Kalimantan and Ruhui Rahayu Borneo – Indonesia

The Spirit of Kalimantan Cruise offers 3 air-conditioned cabins and a sitting area with an inviting open deck. Besides exquisite cuisine, their English speaking guides will introduce you to the BOS Orangutan rehabilitation programs, black water lake systems, and local Dayak culture as you cruise down the Rungan River. The Ruhui Rahayu is a more slightly more intimate size vessel. Private double cabins and folding shuttered doors that open up directly onto the deck are ideal for family and friends, or for a couple looking for a romantic experience in Borneo.

Alila Purnama, Eastern Indonesia – Indonesia

Meaning Full Moon and able to accommodate up to 10 guests, Alila Purnama is one of the most luxurious live-aboard Phinisi ships in Asia. Handcrafted in the traditional style of boats once used by the Bugis seafarers from south Sulawesi in Indonesia, the 46-metre-long vessel features 3 decks, and 5 well-appointed en-suite cabins including a master suite containing large wraparound windows with 180-degree views.

Supanniga Eating Room, Bangkok – Thailand

Inspired by his grandmother's recipes, the owner Eh serves an appetising range of traditional Thai dishes from both his grandmother's hometown in Trat (near the east coast) and Khon Kaen (northeast) where his family is currently based. The restaurant has a comfortable but chic décor, and an outside terrace in which to sip delicious martinis and savour wonderful food.

The Common Tiger, Phnom Penh – Cambodia

The Common Tiger specialises in contemporary world cuisine made with local Cambodian produce and flavours whenever possible. A first to offer this new style of cooking in Phnom Penh, this restaurant has both indoor and alfresco seating.

Discover Secret Retreats properties on www.secret-retreats.com/en/collection

For media enquiries, please contact Cristy Elmendorp at: cristy@secret-retreats.com

- Ends -

View of the 4 Rivers Floating Lodge

Villa Idanna

View from the Spirit of Kalimantan in Borneo

Dessert at The Common Tiger